Alexandria Gazette

THURSDAY BYENING, DEC'R. 12.

W. Powell preached on Sunday in Greens Street Tabernseleen "The man who is turning the world ugside down." He said he did not desire to coter jato discussion, for every man was entitled Tobis own epinion, but he did bo lieve the dark theology presented to the people of this city was productive of more harm than good Preachers should lead people upwards. but Mr. Moody does not; he comes down to their level. The excitement Mr. Moody was creaming, bessil, was not due to his superior foielliaded of brilliant oratory, bu: to his shrewd management of men, his extreme partlality and exclusiveness. He flatters the saint and anathematizes the sinner. He throws cut all inimical influences, such as Universalists, Cathelic and Unitarians. Mr. Moody, he said, had a merbid belief in the omnipotent power of preyet. Many believe that prayer changes that which the Scriptures say is unchargeable -namely. God, and moves Him to play and love. This leads people to the impression that they can obtain by rrayer what God's immutable laws compel all to work for. Prayer is aspiration going up to God, instead of bringing God down to us, thus changing curselves, not Him. The belief in vicarious stonement, which makes the innocent suffer for the guilty, must be very acceptable to evil doers, for un der its inflacace the sinner believes he can cast off his burden efferime and punishment, and the murderer can swing from the gallows to wear his crown in glory. Rav. R. H. Pull man, of East Baltimore Street Universalist church, also took exception to Mr. Moody's dec trines in regard to bell and salvation .- Balt. Herald. OVERCOATS, EISEMAN BROS., 7TH AND E.
